Wild & Wolf's Use of Cookies

Cookies are small text files. Many websites place cookies on your computer when you visit. Cookies are used to make websites work, or to make them work more efficiently, and to provide useful information to website operators. The following table explains what cookies W & W uses and why.

Cookie	Name	Purpose
Google Analytics	<code>_ga_gid</code>	These cookies are used to distinguish between users.
	<code>_gat_gtag_UA_99105675_5</code>	This cookie is used to throttle request rate. The (UA_99105675_5) is a site identifier.
WooCommerce	<code>woocommerce_recent_searches</code>	This cookie is set to stock last searches done by an user using the search form at the top right.
	<code>woocommerce_recently_viewed</code>	This cookie is set to stock last 5 products IDs visited by the user. This cookie allows us to display the "Recently Viewed" section on the product detail page.
	<code>woocommerce_cart_hash & woocommerce_items_in_cart</code>	These cookies contain information about the cart as a whole and helps WooCommerce know when the cart data changes. No personal information is stored within these cookies.
	<code>wp_woocommerce_session</code>	This cookie contains a unique code for each customer so that it knows where to find the cart data in the database for each customer. No personal information is stored within these cookies.

Many web browsers allow users to control most cookies through their browser settings. More information about cookies, including details on viewing what cookies have been set and how to delete them is available at: visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

You can opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites at <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
